INTRODUCTION

The following order list has been compiled from various sources, some of the most helpful having been the "A.L.A." catalog of 5000 volumes, Bibliographies compiled by the Wisconsin library commission, List of books for a children's library compiled by Annie Carrol Moore, the list in the "Printed catalog cards for children's books" and the list of "100 entertaining biographies" printed by the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, the bibliography lectures given at the University of Illinois, and the proof sheets of the Library of Congress cards for the 1904 "A.L.A." catalog entries.

The available money has been apportioned among the different subjects, exclusive of fiction and general periodicals, in such a way as would bring the library into conformity with the proportions given in the "A.L.A." catalog of 5000 volumes, in so far as the selection of books now in the library and the apparent needs of the community would permit. Fiction is excluded because the library already has a large percentage of fiction and because it is hoped that the new and popular books may be supplied through the Bodley Club Library. General periodicals have been excluded because, on account of numerous recent gifts, it is not known what the library has as a basis for its collection.

The division of the money is as follows:-

General works	$ 180.60
Philosophy	45.95
Religion	53.15
Sociology	197.30
Language	82.25
Natural science	139.62
Useful arts	170.70
Fine arts	136.70
Literature	273.57
History	401.34
Travel	151.60
Biography	370.95
Children's books	841.57

Total	$ 3045.30

A list of books which now form the Public School Library but which are to be the nucleus of the Free Public Library is given as an appendix. As the list was made at various times and by different people the entries are not uniform. No corrections were attempted as the list could not be verified. An effort has been made to avoid duplication except in the case of children's books and books retained by the Public School Library. Books retained are marked x and these have been duplicated only when it seemed desirable to have them in the library for reference use as it is probable that they can be borrowed for occasional use.

Books in the order list which have been found in the proof sheets for the Library of Congress cards for the 1904 "A.L.A." catalog entries are marked # . Books not so marked may be included in the catalog but they had not appeared in the proof sheets issued before May 25, 1904.

The list is arranged under the nine classes of the Decimal classification. These are subdivided and the works are arranged alphabetically by author under the subdivisions. Biography is arranged alphabetically by biographee and is placed after history. The children's books are placed last and are arranged alphabetically by author under large subjects. The subjects chosen and the arrangement of them are those used by Miss Moore in her List of books for a children's library. The arrangement of the appendix is practically that of the list.

Full names of authors have been given when they could be found without a long search. Date of publication has been given when it could be found; when not found, two dashes have been used where the date belongs. The prices given are those quoted in the trade catalogs and a discount of from ten to thirty percent may usually be obtained. The number of copies has been placed at the left of the entry.
